

Learning outcomes

Career pathways flyer (secondary schools)

Descriptor	This component introduces the various roles that support a project such as Stage 3 during the design and construct phase, along with examples of the career pathways available. Students have the opportunity to consider careers beyond the more well-known jobs and increasing opportunities for women in construction.
Age group	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Grade 7-8 students
Duration of activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 60 minutes
Resources	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Print the Careers in Construction brochure
Curriculum alignment	Alignment to the Australian Curriculum <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Humanities and Social Sciences <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Economics and Business (AC9HE7K04): understanding the nature of work and the work environment; the reasons individuals work, the types of work they are involved in, and how they may derive an income
Aims	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Consider careers in the construction industry Describe the types of work required for the Stage 3 build Promote the increasing opportunities for women in construction.
Overview	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Careers in Construction brochure is accessible as a digital and downloadable PDF from the Science Tram Learning Hub. It provides a list on construction roles specific to the build of Stage 3. Teachers and students can work through the different types of construction projects that support a city/community. Discuss the different types of roles required to deliver key infrastructure. Students can explore the career pathways of one or more jobs/careers that interest them.
Lesson Ideas	Examples of Lesson Ideas to expand on careers in construction pathways: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students develop an aspirational bio: If I was to choose a career in the construction industry my role would be.....because.... (students consider interest, personality and dispositions, lifestyle) Students interview 5 trusted adults using the same question as above Submit questions about specific careers to the Stage 3 project team for more information on a role or a video chat with a particular role.