Marnong Estate
2335 Mickleham Road,
Mickleham Victoria 3429.

Marnong Estate is a working farm, vineyard and event venue in Melbourne's north-west. The market will be held on the Main Lawn at Marnong Estate, a working farm, vineyard and event venue in Melbourne's north-west. The venue is accessible via the Hume Freeway and Mickleham Road, within a 35 to 45 minute drive from Melbourne's CBD.

Parking:

On-site parking is available at Marnong Estate, including a drop-off zone close to the entrance.

Designated disability parking:

Designated accessible parking bays are available on-site, with level or ramped access from the car park to the entrance. The accessible entrance is clearly signed from the parking bay.

Public transport:

Marnong Estate is not well serviced by public transport. Driving is recommended for this venue.

Facilities:

Marnong Estate offers step-free access throughout most of the venue, including ancillary areas such as outdoor and market spaces.

- Accessible toilets are available on-site (door at least 850mm wide, handrails fitted, and a minimum of 850mm beside the toilet).
- External paths are concrete, smooth paving or hard-packed fine gravel, with a minimum width of 1700mm and no more than 3 successive steps on any path.
- Almost all paths around the estate are wheelchair-friendly with no steps — the only steps are at the entrance to the Green Grove event space from the car park, with a step-free alternative route available through the Homestead gates.
- Water is available for guide dogs and other accredited service animals, which are welcome across the property.
- Clear signage is provided throughout the venue, including accessible routes and facilities.

If you have any access requirements, please let us know so that we can help make your experience as enjoyable and hassle-free as possible.
