

Accessibility Information | Jack McKenzie Community Hall Drop-In

Monday 14 September 2026, 4:00pm – 7:00pm

Location:

Jack McKenzie Community Hall,
11 Green Street,
Bulla VIC 3428.

Jack McKenzie Community Hall is located in the rural township of Bulla, in Melbourne's north-west, set amidst open green space with access to a playground and the Bulla Recreation Reserve nearby. The venue is a spacious function room with hardwood floors, versatile meeting spaces, and a well-equipped kitchen. The venue is accessible via car, within approximately 35 to 45 minutes drive from Melbourne's CBD.

Parking:

Jack McKenzie Community Hall has off-street parking shared with the miniature railway and public playground, with a gravel car park that can hold up to 100 cars.

Designated disability parking:

Please confirm accessible parking availability with the venue prior to the event if required.

Public transport:

Bulla has limited public transport options; a car is the most practical way to reach the venue.

- Bus: Route 479 stops at Rawdon St/Bulla Rd, approximately 500m from the venue. This route connects Bulla to Sunbury Station and Melbourne Airport.

Public transport travel time from Melbourne CBD is approximately 75 minutes to 90 minutes

Facilities:

Accessible facilities are available onsite, throughout the venue.

- Ramp access at the main entrance, and additional ramps elsewhere on the venue.
- An accessible toilet is available onsite, in addition to separate male and female toilets.
- Main Hall, Meeting Room 1 and Meeting Room 2 are all accessible from the foyer.
- Undercover outdoor decking and veranda areas are available.
- Ducted heating and cooling is available in the main hall, with reverse cycle split systems in both meeting rooms.

If you have any access requirements, please let us know so that we can help make your experience as enjoyable and hassle-free as possible.

Wayfinding and assistance:
