

Project overview

The Western Renewables Link is a proposed new 190km overhead high-voltage electricity transmission line that will carry renewable energy from Bulgana in western Victoria to Sydenham in Melbourne's north-west.

The project is critical infrastructure required to unlock the renewable energy potential of western Victoria as a key Renewable Energy Zone and will help to deliver clean and affordable energy to Victorians.

Project timeline

Planning and approvals

Commence stakeholder engagement
Early-2020

Commence formal approvals process
and community engagement
Mid-2020

Submit EES to DTP for adequacy assessment 2024

Construction

Commence
construction 2026

Project completion 2028

Ongoing engagement with landholders and community